Testimonials From Some Of Our Students

"The idea of bringing humour in leadership is quite unique. You have to come with an open mind and try everything & go with the flow. There is a lot of learning here."

Rina Goldenberg Lynch

Founder and CEO, Voice At the Table Ltd, London

"Once in a while, someone stumbles on something truly novel, and I believe this is what you have done Dr Vanessa Marcié. Humour is a mighty tool, and it is interesting to see how it can be intentionally and strategically leverage for leadership, management and business."

Ayobami Olunloyo,

Multimedia Production Manager at Jesus House, London

"We extremely enjoyed the workshop, and left that afternoon relaxed and intrigued by the perspective we saw on the issue, from which we didn't look before. It unleashes creativity, confidence, and improves self-perception."

Ashraf Shouaib

Investment Professional, Australia

"It has been fun; it has been interactive. I think it is a really good way to get people to throw away some of their inhibitions. It is an excellent workshop and a nice icebreaker. I'm very interested to use it in my job for the perspective of making people comfortable with failure."

Philina Toiny

Principal at Capgemini Invent & co-President, PWN London

"I thoroughly enjoyed the "Humour and Leadership" training run by Vanessa and would gladly recommend it to others. It was insightful to learn about the types of humour and in which circumstances these are most impactful. I found the exercises quite effective. While simple, they help to break the fear of a "feeling that I look stupid" and develop the ability to use humour/make a joke to get out of the most uncomfortable situations."

Anar Kubekpayeva

Senior Manager, Capital Market, London

"Humour has become a key tool in my professional career. Attending Dr Marcie's workshop provided clarity on my humour style and installed confidence in my moving forward with it based on her research findings. I appreciate the unique way her course is designed as it was balanced with academic findings and practical exercises... and, of course, embracing humour in action."

Sarah Broderick
CRO @Clinked.com, Cambridge

"Dr. Vanessa Marcie or the power of humour in our professional environments. A new key to business transformation for sure."

"I couldn't recommend this session highly enough. Vanessa was engaging and funny while sharing her extensive knowledge and research into humour within the workplace. It's often a subject that is forgotten about but yet so important to understand. Everyone who attended the workshop gave such great feedback as the session was interactive and extremely interesting. Vanessa discusses how the power of humour can be used for positive change and interactions at work and gives some great tools/tips on how to use humour to your advantage in the workplace. Fantastic session – thank you!"

"Thank you for your enlightening intervention on ourselves and the responsibility of our humour"

Cyril GAYSSOT, Directeur FMS

"In our sessions, Vanessa mentored me and made me realise I can lead with humour too. I have started using good jokes and bringing humour within the team even if that is with 'Giphy' as it brings a smile on someones face. Thanks Vanessa, you have truly improved the way I would use my humour skills and helped me understand that I can joke about anything on this earth!"

Laveena Ramchandani

Senior Consultant, Deloitte UK

"A very powerful conference.

It is obvious that Vanessa is used to the stage, she occupies it, engages her audience and it's super boosting! Vanessa communicates her energy and we are transported!!!"
